

GAS PRICE COMPARISONS

To join the Virginia Railway Express (VRE), Spotsylvania County must institute a two-percent gasoline tax. VRE-member localities pay for membership with a portion of the revenue collected from this tax. By Virginia law, the remaining revenue collected each year must be spent on transportation-related needs (road improvements, public transportation, etc.).

Because of this region’s location along Interstate 95 (one of the world’s busiest highways) and close proximity to both Washington and Richmond, a tremendous amount of gas is sold in Spotsylvania, Fredericksburg and Stafford. This is reinforced and can be measured by the millions of dollars in revenue the city and Stafford collect each year from the two-percent gas tax. In just the eight years since 2001, for example, and after paying for all their VRE membership costs, Fredericksburg and Stafford have cleared and collected nearly $25,000,000.00 for local transportation needs.

The table below shows the total amount of two-percent gas tax revenue collected by each locality from 2001 through 2008, the amount subtracted for VRE membership costs during those years as well as the total remaining amount of net new revenue generated for each locality to spend on transportation needs. These numbers were provided from and can be confirmed by the city Budget Manager in Fredericksburg and County Administrator in Stafford. See footnote below.*

2% Gas Tax Collections, Associated VRE Costs and New Revenue (2001-08)
	FREDERICKSBURG	STAFFORD	SPOTSYLVANIA
Total 2% Tax Collected (2001-08):	$9,875,413	$23,360,455	$0
-VRE Member Costs (2001-08):	$1,143,448	$7,440,013	$0
New Revenue Remaining:	$8,731,965	$15,920,442	$0

The issue addressed in this report is the question of whether or not this two-percent gas tax will be reflected in the price at the pump. Do consumers pay approximately two-percent more per gallon for gas where the tax is imposed, meaning Spotsylvania citizens could expect their taxes to go up? Or do other market forces equalize the regional price of gas, meaning Spotsylvania has been effectively “paying” the tax all along without collecting any of the revenue?

A listing of recorded gas prices and comparison between localities of specific fuel brands can answer this question. North America’s leading gas related consumer advocacy group GasBuddy.com provides daily gas price information throughout the United States and Canada.

Fredericksburg Budget Manager Mark Whitley: (540) 372-1010
 Stafford County Administrator Anthony Romanello: (540) 658-4541

Their gas price data is used by Google, consumer-advocacy organizations and newspapers throughout North America, including the Free Lance-Star. (The Free Lance-Star publishes the region's ten cheapest per-gallon gas prices, by location, every Friday.)

The gas price data contained within this report was recorded and provided by GasBuddy.com (see note below); it is specific to Spotsylvania, Stafford and Fredericksburg and includes daily per gallon gas prices by station name, address, date and time. The data in this report spans a two month time period ending January 27, 2009.

ANALYSIS METHODOLOGY

This report includes comparisons of average per gallon gas prices sold by specific fuel brands during this time period (Wawa, Valero, 7-Eleven and Shell). It also includes a Fredericksburg/Stafford Sheetz comparison, a station not located in Spotsylvania, but added to illustrate a marked price difference by a single brand located in adjoining localities that both impose a two-percent gas tax as a requirement of VRE membership. No comparisons are made among competing fuel brands in any locality; for example, a Spotsylvania 7-Eleven gas price is only compared to a city or Stafford 7-Eleven gas price.

With over 1000 recorded times and prices, there is enough data to include random comparisons of exact times among specific fuel brands across localities, and this report highlights a sampling in the comparison of regional Wawa stores (whereby you can compare a Spotsylvania Wawa price per gallon with a Fredericksburg or Stafford Wawa price at an exact same time). Although any exact time comparisons can be found within this report, not all are highlighted in the Wawa data and none are highlighted in data tables of subsequently included fuel brands.

Note: Because gas is advertised and priced to the tenth of a cent ($1.599 versus $1.60), GasBuddy.com provided all per gallon gas prices exactly as presented in the tables section of this report, rounded to the nearest cent, but with a "0" remaining to represent the tenth of a cent. This allows for a more exact comparison of averages, down to a tenth of a cent.*

SUMMARY OF FINDINGS

Of the over 1000 per gallon gas prices recorded during this time period, the data shows the average Fredericksburg and Stafford per gallon gas prices were NOT more expensive (two-percent or otherwise) than per gallon gas prices at those same stations in Spotsylvania. In some cases, Spotsylvania per gallon gas prices exceeded the per gallon price at the same stations in Stafford and Fredericksburg, meaning Spotsylvania has been effectively “paying” the tax all along without collecting any of the revenue.

As illustrated in the table below, of the average per gallon gas prices (as advertised at each location of the four region-wide fuel brands included within this report), the least expensive gas was usually sold in Fredericksburg or Stafford, and not in Spotsylvania (with one exception: 7-Eleven).

Least Expensive Average Per Gallon Price Per Station/Brand
	SPOTSYLVANIA	FREDERICKSBURG	STAFFORD
WAWA	$1.585	$1.588	$1.582
VALERO	$1.583	$1.582	$1.582
7-ELEVEN	$1.579	$1.587	$1.590
SHELL	$1.680	$1.659	$1.716

*It is important to note, however, the price paid by consumers is rounded to the nearest cent. As illustrated in the table below, it makes the average Valero price paid per gallon the exact same in all three localities:

Least Expensive Average Per Gallon Price Per Station/Brand
	SPOTSYLVANIA	FREDERICKSBURG	STAFFORD
WAWA	$1.59	$1.59	$1.58
VALERO	$1.58	$1.58	$1.58
7-ELEVEN	$1.58	$1.59	$1.59
SHELL	$1.68	$1.66	$1.72

Regardless, in Spotsylvania, consumers paid the same at Valero, more (than Stafford) at Wawa, more (than Fredericksburg) at Shell and less only at 7-Eleven locations.

GAS PRICES BY FUEL BRAND

Wawa Averages:

Wawa is one of the busiest and most competitive fuel brands in Spotsylvania, Fredericksburg and Stafford. GasBuddy.com recorded and provided nearly 600 Wawa per gallon gas prices during this two-month period, and all are included, by locality, within this report.

Note: As mentioned previously, the table with the complete list of recorded Spotsylvania Wawa gas prices (page 13) includes highlighted cells to reference exact times when the price per gallon was either the same or more expensive at a Spotsylvania Wawa than at either a Stafford or Fredericksburg Wawa.

Valero Averages:

Valero is another common and competitive fuel brand in all three localities. GasBuddy.com recorded and provided just over 400 Valero per gallon gas prices during this two-month period, and all are included, by locality, within this report.

Shell Averages:

Shell is included to offer a “Big Oil” comparison among the three localities. As indicated in the second and third tables of this report (page 3), Shell is not as competitive as 7-Eleven, Valero or Wawa. GasBuddy.com recorded and provided over 100 Shell per gallon gas prices during this two-month period, and all are included, by locality, within this report.

This comparison is included to illustrate a marked price difference by a single brand in adjoining localities that both impose a two-percent gas tax as a requirement of VRE membership. GasBuddy.com recorded and provided nearly 60 Sheetz per gallon gas prices during this two-month period, and all are included, by locality, within this report.

FUEL BRAND TABLES

The following pages present all the recorded gas prices provided by GasBuddy.com, between Nov. 27, 2008 and Jan. 27, 2009, from regional Wawa, Valero, 7-Eleven, Shell and Sheetz fuel brands (in that order).

Note: There is enough data to include random comparisons of exact times among specific fuel brands across localities, and this report highlights a sampling in the comparison of regional Wawa stores (whereby you can compare a Spotsylvania Wawa price per gallon with a Fredericksburg or Stafford Wawa price at an exact same time). Although many exact time comparisons can be found within this report, not all are highlighted in the Wawa data and none are highlighted in data tables of subsequently included fuel brands.
